PAABLE

Powers your life experiences

A savings plan for people with disabilities.

Pennsylvania ABLE Savings Program (PA ABLE) accounts help people with disabilities increase financial independence while maintaining eligibility for important benefits.

Program Highlights

Save Without Jeopardizing Government Benefits While Getting Significant Tax Advantages*

- PA ABLE savings are not counted against ANY federal needs-based benefits.
- Pennsylvania needs-based benefits for health, disability, and student financial aid are also protected.
- Earnings are free from Pennsylvania and federal income taxes when used for qualified expenses.

Additional PA-Only Benefits*

Pennsylvanians get these exclusive benefits with PA ABLE:

- Contributions to a PA ABLE account are Pennsylvania state income tax deductible up to $19,000 per person. This tax deduction is exclusively for contributions made to a PA ABLE account.
- Not subject to a claim for repayment of Medical Assistance by Pennsylvania (under some circumstances, your estate may be).

Savings and Investment Options

Save Your Way

- Choose a bank checking account or from a combination of several investment options to meet your short- and long-term goals.
- Anyone can contribute any time by check, online, or automatically from a bank account or payroll deductions.
- Contribute up to $19,000 per year. Employed account owners may contribute additional funds through ABLE to Work, which expands employment opportunities and earning potential for people with disabilities.
